

Brad Hyra

Paralegal

bhyra@verrill-law.com

Brad has over a decade of experience, covering all facets of the trademark registration process, and currently collaborates with our intellectual property team in managing a substantial trademark and copyright portfolio.

Brad primarily assists in the preparation and filing of trademark and copyright applications, trademark prosecution, the maintenance and renewal of trademark registrations, and also helps manage the trademark docketing system.

Before arriving at Verrill in 2022, Brad worked at several boutique Intellectual Property firms where he gained extensive firsthand experience working in the trademark, patent, and copyright arenas. Brad is also a 2004 graduate of George Mason University.

A native and lifelong resident of the Washington DC area, Brad enjoys playing guitar, collecting records, and reading in his free time.

Services/Industries

- Intellectual Property
- Trademark